Digital literacy, to integration month

STAFF REPORTER

District Education Officer (Girls) Rawalpindi Hajra Shaheen on Monday said that month of April has been declared as "Digital Literacy and Technology Integration Month" across Punjab under the vision of Chief Minister Maryam Nawaz.

She said that modern IT activities have formally been launched in all government girls' schools of Rawalpindi district under the initiative.

In a statement, she said the campaign aims to equip female students with skills required in the digital age and prepare them for academic and professional challenges.
